

Person Specification for Priest In Charge in the Millom Benefice

Our new priest should bring the following essential qualities /experience:

- Bible-based teaching and broad-based churchmanship
- ministry to all generations: those currently involved with the churches, those with tenuous links and the totally missing generations
- visionary leadership with a clear view of the Church's mission
- experience of leading and growing churches
- understanding of parochial financial matters
- car and driving licence and be

- committed to team work, as a team builder, a team member and a team leader who can develop the skills of lay and ordained members
- a good communicator, who is approachable, a good listener and keeps people informed
- well-organised with good IT skills
- actively involved in the local community

In addition, the following qualities are desirable:

- Experience in a parish with more than one church
- Resilience, energy and a sense of humour