

Person Specification
Flixton, St John. House for Duty Appointment

	Essential requirements	Desirable requirements
Spirituality and Tradition	Prayerful and a loving minister who will be committed to finding new and creative ways of sharing faith in Jesus Christ, within an evangelical tradition	An openness to working with other traditions.
Experience and Understanding	Experience of helping the church build on its connections within the community, and to be a voice for the church.	Awareness of the skills needed to minister in a mixed school setting.
Skills and Competencies	Able to help the church grow and to develop the Diocesan Vision. To continue to be able to motivate and encourage lay leadership within the church family. To encourage the pastoral team. amongst committed and active members of the church and to develop a Pastoral Team. To lead the parish in its mission and to implement its Mission Action Plan, looking towards the future. To play a full part in the life of Stretford Deanery.	Ability to work amongst the younger membership, and to encourage their participation in the church family. A willingness to engage with the primary and secondary schools.
General Attributes	Friendly, thoughtful and approachable. Able to live and share the good news of Jesus Christ.	